

No Excuse For Pimples

Skin Cleared in a Short Time by Stuart's Calcium Wafers, the Famous Blood Purifier.

Pimples, blotches, skin eruptions of all kinds, are simply the impurities in the blood coming to the surface. All the external treatment in the world won't do a particle of good unless you purify the blood. And there's nothing so humiliating as a face that's all "broken out" and spotted.

Stuart's Calcium Wafers will clear the most obstinate complexion, because they go right into the blood and remove the cause of all impurities. The blood is cleansed of all impurities and foreign substances, and these are quickly eliminated from the system. You'll notice a wonderful change in a few days—you will hardly know yourself in a week.

And Stuart's Calcium Wafers are absolutely harmless to any one. Their ingredients are just what a physician prescribes in most cases of skin eruptions and poor blood. These wafers are put up in concentrated form, which makes them act quickly and thoroughly.

Begin taking Stuart's Calcium Wafers to-day and then look at yourself in the mirror in a few days, and find all those awful pimples, blackheads, acne, boils, liver spots, rash, eczema and that muddy complexion rapidly disappearing and your face cleared like the petals of a flower.

You can easily test Stuart's Calcium Wafers for yourself. You can get the regular-sized package for 50c in any drug store.—Advertisement

UNIVERSITY LECTURES BEGIN NEXT FRIDAY

Will Be Delivered in Various Sections of State by Members of Its Faculty.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Charlottesville, Va., November 9.—Professor W. H. Heck announces that the extension course of lectures offered this session by the University of Virginia will be formally inaugurated next Friday. In two instances, however, a change in the date, made to meet local conditions, was necessary. This was in the appointment for Richmond, where Professor W. M. Forrest will speak at the John Marshall High School November 25, on "The Literary Influence of the Bible," and in the case of Fredericksburg, where Professor C. Alphonso Smith lectures last night on the subject, "What Literature Can Do for You."

The assignments for next Friday evening are as follows: "Thomas Walker Page, professor of economics, lately of the United States Tariff Board, 'The Tariff,' Orange." "L. G. Hoxton, associate professor of physics, 'Liquid Air,' Laurenceville." "W. A. Kepner, adjunct professor of biology, 'Animal Adaptations,' Harrisonburg."

William M. Hunley, adjunct professor of political science, "Education for Citizenship and Public Service," Palmyra.

R. H. Dabney, professor of history, "The Influence of the Past Upon the Present," Lynchburg.

Professor Edgar, associate professor of chemistry, "The Industrial Triumphs of Modern Chemistry," Petersburg.

H. E. Jordan, professor of history and geography, "The Effect of War Upon the Race," Farmville.

W. H. Heck, professor of education, "Hereditary and Education," Bedford City.

M. S. Farrow, adjunct professor of physics, "Soap Bubbles," Albemarle.

DECLINE TO ASK FOR SPECIAL TERM

Commissioners Satisfied With Date Already Set for Trial of Hazers.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Chapel Hill, N. C., November 9.—At a recent meeting of the Board of County Commissioners of Orange County, held at Hillsboro, Solicitor S. M. Gattis recommended to the commissioners that they ask Governor W. W. Fitch for a special term of the Orange County Superior Court for the trial of the four hazers indicted on the charge of manslaughter in the case of the death of Freshman I. W. Rand, of Smithfield, on the morning of September 12. The recommendation was fought by the attorney for the county, Frank Nash, and by a vote of two to one the Board of Commissioners defeated the proposed proposition. Therefore, as previously announced, the trial will not come up earlier than the March term of Orange court, with Judge Peebles presiding. The recommendation by Solicitor Gattis set the date for the special term of court for the third week in December.

Carolina's first inter-collegiate debate for the college year will be with Washington and Lee University, of Lexington, Va., about the date of December 14, to be held either at Lexington or Lynchburg, Va. The query reads: "Resolved, that a more expeditious method of amending the Federal constitution should be adopted." Carolina upholds the negative side of the question. Carolina's preliminaries for the debate will be held on November 12.

The new educational building at the State University, a gift of the Peabody Fund, is nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy by the first of 1913. The Peabody Fund contributed $40,000 towards its erection.

Sixty members and semi-weeklies from all sections of the State, the University Press Association held its first meeting of the college year Monday night in Gerrard Hall for the purpose of organization and instituting plans for the year's work. The Association unanimously elected the following members of the student body as officers of the organization: President, S. R. Winters, of Greenville County; vice-president, Speight Bean, of Cleveland County; secretary, M. H. Dunnagan, of Yadkin County; treasurer, D. L. Rights, of Iredell County.

Plans were suggested to invite members of the faculty and newspaper men of the State to make short talks before the association at its regular weekly meetings on Friday night.

Attractive Radford Girl

MISS CAPERTON PRESTON, of Radford.

Radford, Va., November 9.—One of the young girls of whom Radford is proud is Miss Caperton Preston, daughter of the late Captain Hugh C. Preston, who served in the regular army in the Philippines during the Spanish-American war. Miss Preston was educated at Williams Convent, Wytheville, and afterwards studied at Columbia University, where she took a course in Shakespeare and folk and national dancing, and last summer a two-summer course in physical culture at Harvard, where she studied swimming and rowing, tennis, folk and national dancing, aesthetic dancing, etc.

For several years she has conducted a Shakespeare class at Norfolk and dancing classes at Norfolk, Old Point Comfort and Hampton, where her pupils ranged in age from two and a half years to adults who have stopped telling their age.

Miss Preston is also much interested in out-of-door sports, and is going to organize next summer a girls' camp, which will be a branch of the "Camp Fire Girls of America."

Miss Preston belongs to one of the distinguished families of the State. The founder of the Montgomery family of Prestons was Colonel William Preston, surveyor of Staunton, in 1773, who bought Smithfield, the old seat of the Prestons, near Blacksburg, named in honor of his wife, Miss Susanna Smith, of Hanover.

Here, too, lived Miss Preston's great-grandfather, James F. Preston, Governor of Virginia, with his three sons, William Ballard Preston, Secretary of the Navy under Taylor; Robert Preston, minister to France; and Miss Preston's grandfather, Colonel Preston, who commanded the Fourth Virginia Regiment of the Stonewall Brigade.

It was to him that White Thomas, the beautiful estate built by Governor Preston, was bequeathed, and here Miss Preston's father lived until he came to Radford in his infancy.

Miss Preston is named for her maternal grandmother, Miss Susan Caperton, a sister of John I. Caperton, Governor of the State, and afterwards a member of the Confederate Congress. Her mother was Miss Carey Baldwin, the brilliant daughter of Dr. R. F. Baldwin, of Staunton, who rendered distinguished service as army surgeon during the Civil War and was afterwards physician to the School for the Deaf and Blind and for the Hospital for the Insane at Staunton.

Miss Preston is a bright and attractive young girl and socially prominent.
